

Coachmen - Class A Motorhomes

have achieved a "SILVER" rating

| Green Categories             | Performance Level Points |        |      |         |
|------------------------------|--------------------------|--------|------|---------|
|                              | BRONZE                   | SILVER | GOLD | EMERALD |
| Resource Efficiency          |                          |        | X    |         |
| Energy Efficiency            |                          | X      |      |         |
| Water Efficiency             |                          | X      |      |         |
| Indoor Environmental Quality |                          |        | X    |         |
| Operation & Maintenance      |                          |        |      | X       |

This rating is based on the minimum level achieved in accordance with a 2008 ANSI approved consensus standard. Certain elements of the standard are not applicable such as lot design, preparation and development. Green Certification of the motorhome does not include analysis of the chassis.

